

Wed. March 1. 1880.

Dear Jim,

I am going out to Jeannine and get her baby and keep him for the day so she can clean her house and get ready for the wine tasting party she is having Friday Night. She is getting a little frustrated as her in-laws are arriving from Leavenworth Saturday and she doesn't expect them until next week.

I am going to stop at the bank on the way and then get this in the mail.

I'll talk to you soon.

Love,
Mom
